

WARSZTATY DIAGNOSTYCZNE DLA I INTERESARIUSZY

A photograph showing a person in a patterned shirt pointing at a large sheet of paper on a table. The paper contains a complex diagram with a grid and various colored lines (red, blue, green, yellow) and arrows. A smartphone is visible on the table to the right, and a cup is on the left. The diagram appears to be a technical drawing or a map, possibly related to the 'Spatial Data Science' course mentioned in the text.
